Captain and Wife and Eight of Crew Perish When Lifeboat Is Swamped.

New York, April 16.—Captain Hardy and his wife and eight members of the crew of the schooner Charles K. Buckley, from Jacksonville for New York, perished hist night when their lifeboat was wrecked after the Buckley had been hurled ashore by a northeast gale near Long Branch, N. J.

The schooner is a total loss.
The Charles K. Buckley was heavily laden with lumber. She was a three-masted schooner of 429 tons. Her home port was Newark, N. J.

The schooner becama unmanageable early last night. She first struck the beach near Scabright, N. J., when the wind caught her and swept her down the coast, where she appeared to break in two. Her cargo of lumber kept her affont, though a great mass of it was swent was a week.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBINSON.—Died, two weeks ago today. April 3, 1914, MRS. JOHN S.
ROBINSON, at her residence, 1190
Decatur Street, South Richmond, Va.
The messenger of death never came with a sadder message or one to more saddened hearts than when it bereft this home of a most devoted wife and mother.
The funeral was held the following Sunday evening from Central M.
E. Church, Rev. W. A. Cooper officiating, services being largely attended.
The high esteen in which the deceased was held was truly manifested by the many handsome and lovely floral tributes sent by loved ones and sympathetic friends.
May the husband and children in this hour of their bereavement be taught to feel that this, their first great affliction, comes from One who is toe wise to err, and too good to be unkind.
